KEES ARCHITECTURE LLC

LABA MEMBER SINCE 2012

Mike Bluske partnered with Kees Architecture and the owner on this contemporary 1,150-sq.-ft. accessory building. This building functions to provide additional space and amenities for the owner. Designed to have a bold presence of its own, this building uses similar textures, window patterns and geometry to complement the custom home already on site, without trying to copy or mimic it. Located on a steeply wooded lot overlooking the Mississippi River and adjacent to Perrot State Park, care was given to preserving existing trees and perching the building in just the right location to take advantage of long river views while respecting the existing home and landscape. Confined to a small footprint due to site limitations, the main level is a single-stall garage, while a separate entrance and stair from the exterior open to one large room above that can function in multiple ways for the owner, providing either large, expansive views to the river or a more intimate space for a desk or reading chair. The bathroom takes advantage of the site's privacy with large windows looking into the woods, as well as a custom walk-in shower and sauna. A small kitchenette with adjacent storage allows modern conveniences and comforts at your fingertips.

This small 1980s home built in the woods near the Black River underwent a thorough remodel that took it from run-down but salvageable to charming and cozy—a cabin in the woods featuring repurposed and modern materials. A complete remodel inside and out including mechanicals, insulation, drywall, roofing, flooring and siding involved the addition of a welcoming entry, covered porch and two-car garage. Both new and repurposed materials were used to create the feel of an old cabin that includes a wood-burning fireplace with a brick surround using brick from a 120-year-old garage floor, rustic aspen wood ceilings, ash and walnut trim from salvaged logs and metal ceilings salvaged from a machine shed roof on a nearby farmstead. Other features include LP SmartSide siding, Thermo-Tech and Parco windows and Malarkey shingles.

All Jon Olson Construction homes are tested, rated and guaranteed energy efficient through the Focus on Energy Program.

Welcome to our 2023 Parade home! Nestled in the trees of a new development, this contemporary home thrives in natural surroundings. When grooming the lot, we harvested timbers to create features within the home and strived to minimize the home's footprint without sacrificing areas for coziness. We have taken great care in crafting this space for enjoyment, with or without company. The spacious great room, game room and TV room optimize entertaining needs, while the warm light entering through the black Anderson office windows make the bookshelves and large desk glow. For added harmony, the patio door wall opens to the screen porch, giving the illusion of being in a tree. The enhanced customization of this home is a product of the positive teamwork between builder and customer.

As a craftsman and builder in La Crosse, John of Mazzola Construction and Consulting LLC has been called upon to build exceptional homes for over 25 years. The Mazzola team is excited about the company's direction and quest to create cutting-edge homes for distinguished customers. Contact us to find out why we love creating new homes. We look forward to showing off this home and thank the owners for this opportunity.

This Midwestern modern bungalow combines modern styles and colors with natural materials. This home utilizes passive geothermal and solar benefits while maximizing return with cutting-edge heating and cooling. The combination of clean lines, practical design, industrial-style elements, tall ceilings and natural lighting provide this home with a large presence despite its modest footprint and square footage.

Nestled in 7 acres of steep but beautiful woods near town, this home posed initial building and planning challenges beyond the typical; however, the resulting views, sweeping driveway, mature trees and stone walls undoubtedly add to the grandeur.

This five-bedroom, three-and-a-half-bath home offers plenty of room for the whole family. As you come in the covered front entry and into the great room, you will see a beautiful stone fireplace with built-ins. The tall vaulted ceiling continues out onto the large covered deck. As you go out through the double sliding doors onto the deck, you will find a cedar ceiling and an uncovered portion of deck. Come back into the kitchen to find the beverage center, large island, dinette area and walk-in pantry with built-ins. In the master bedroom, you'll find a tray ceiling and separate door onto the deck. The master bath boasts a double vanity and walk-in tile shower. You will find a mud room with drop zone and bench on your way to the six-car garage. Yes—I said six. A main-level laundry room features cabinetry and a separate master walk-in closet entrance. In the walk-out basement, along with a couple of bedrooms and bath, you have a large family room and wet bar. All this and more!

YOUR VOTE COUNTS!

When you purchase a ticket to the annual Parade of Homes, you take on an important responsibility. One of the highest honors a LABA Member can receive is to have his or her Parade entry named "People's Choice," and you have the power to make that happen.

Here's how to cast your vote for the "People's Choice" Award:

- Purchase your Parade tickets at any ticket outlet or Parade Home for $10.
- Visit as many of the Parade Homes as you like. Your ticket will be punched at each home you visit.
- When you are finished with your tour, indicate on your ticket which three homes were your favorites, then deposit the ticket in the box provided at each home for this purpose or drop it off at the LABA office building before August 29, 2023.
- For additional information and ticket outlet locations, please visit our website at www.labaparadeofhomes.com.
